8. Review - Curriculum Council Chair

Sent Back by Allen Thompson Associate Professor / Philosophy Department, March 9, 2018 12:38pm

Comments

Allen Thompson (Curriculum Council Chair) March 9, 2018 12:38pm
Members of Curriculum Council note that the budget narrative document accompanying the proposal for the hybrid delivery of courses for the BA/BS Psychology was a little puzzling. Budgeting for the support staff was straightforward, but the budget for instructional staff was confusing. No salary was listed, but then funds appeared under OPE for instructional staff. Perhaps a brief explanation could be provided. Members wondered too if perhaps additional advising FTE will be needed in the future if the projected student enrollment materializes.

Allen and committee,
Thank you for your comments. I have uploaded revised budget documents that add OPE for instructional staff. I have also added a note to explain that we expect any new Portland-area majors will be lumped in with all new Ecampus majors, and covered by an existing MOU by which Ecampus provides funds per major for advising.
