

2025 Executive Committee Candidate

Kimberly Halsey (at OSU since 1999), Professor ~ Department of Microbiology – College of Science

FACULTY SENATE SERVICE: Science Senator, 2022-present; Lead Science Senator 2023-24; Graduate Council, 2020-24

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE SERVICE: Research and Innovation Seed Program, Individual Investigator and Disease Mechanism and Prevention Fund panel review, 2022; Research and Innovation Seed Program, Stage 3 panel review, 2020; COVID-19 Research Resumption Working Group and Essential Research and Travel Review Panel, 2019-2020; Martin-O'Neal Fellowship Review, 2018; Achievement Awards for College Scientists, Scholar Award Review, 2017

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL SCIENCES SERVICE: Unit review, Horticulture; Peer Review of Teaching 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022; Marine Food Systems and Conservation Strategic Planning, 2020; Graduate Advisory Committee, 2018-2020

UNIVERSITY SERVICE: Promising Scholar Fellowship Review, 2024; Laurels Block Grant Award Review, 2022; Oregon Lottery Graduate Scholarship Award Review, 2021; Center for Genome Research and Biocomputing Seminar Committee, 2019-2021 (2020, Chair),

SEARCH COMMITTEES (at the level of department head and above): College of Agricultural Sciences, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs (2024); College of Science Dean, 2022-2023; College of Science Associate Dean of Research, 2020; Graduate School, Molecular and Cellular Biology Director Search Committee, 2014

Candidate Statement: I am honored to serve the educational and research missions of OSU. During my participation in committee work across two colleges and at the university level, I have witnessed the dedication and creativity of our faculty. I enjoy problem-solving through thoughtful collaboration and teamwork to improve processes that impact the teaching and research priorities of OSU. I am excited to advance OSU's mission by serving on the Executive Committee.